DEAR SIR:—In the within pages will be found the catalogue of the collection of our friend, the late Frank O. Anderson, of Philadelphia, who departed this life April 7, 1905. We do not think that we ever experienced a greater shock than when we were called upon by his brothers and informed of his decease. Mr. Anderson attended our February Sale, and afterwards was our guest for several days, during which time we grew more and more to admire him for his sunny ways and enthusiasm for his chosen hobby. It was his last expressed wish that this collection should be placed in our hands to dispose of, and we herewith offer it to you. The great majority of the coins were purchased by us for him at various times; in fact, we were somewhat of a Mentor to him in the formation of his cabinet. As Mr. Anderson was particularly interested in the coinage of Rome, this series will be found unusually complete, and in a condition that has not been surpassed by any collection that has been offered for many years past. We have included some selections from other cabinets, and trust that we shall receive your generous patronage.

Very truly yours,

GEOFFREY CHARLTON ADAMS.

BANK OF MONTREAL. Front view of building, same as on coinage of '42-4. R. BANK TOKEN, One Penny, 1837. On label, City Bank. Very fine, excessively rare, last Auction record December, 1901, $16.50. We do not recall another having been offered in 15 years.

- 702 Lauzon, obv. steamboat "Lauzon, 1821." R. "Bon pour huit sols, Four Pence," surcharged "J. T." pewter, fine, excess. rare if not unique, Breton, 560

(This coin was offered for sale in our March, 1905, Sale, page, 22, lot 432, and over forty bids were received for it, of which six were exactly the same and practically received at same time. As the bidders could not agree, and as each one was certain that it should go to him, it was decided, in order to keep the peace, that it be offered again. We know of none other.)

- 703 Canada, "One Penny Token," ship r. R. closed wrth, ex. fine and excessively rare. The condition of this piece is finer than the one in the Cutting Sale, which brot $9.50, or in the Landon Sale, which brot $11.70

THE HISTORY OF THE DOLLAR

In July, I shall offer for sale in New York, at Public Auction, the grandest aggregation of silver coins, dollar size or over, American and Foreign, that has probably ever been placed before the Numismatists of this or any other country. The Catalogue will practically be a text-book of these most important and interesting coins, and will only be sent to those requesting same by mail, upon receipt of 15c. (stamps) to defray postage, etc. The charge for priced Catalogues will remain the same, 35c. (cash with order), and only one hundred will be reserved for that purpose. Requests will be filled in the order in which they are received, so get your names in early. Sale probably about July 7th.
